BOARD OF EDUCATION INSPECTS
THE BUILDING TODAY

LEVEL HIGH SCHOOL GROUNDS

Routine Grind of the Board Includes Lengthening of Vacations. Teachers Go to Milwaukee.

The Tenth ward school has been completed, as far as the carpenter work and plastering work goes and a bill for extra work, over the contract price, was entered by Contractor Peter Nelson to the extent of $358.17 at the regular monthly meeting of the board of education last evening in the superintendent's office of the new high school. The bills were at first thought to be too high, but upon investigation it was found that a number of incidental jobs had to be done and that they were perfectly legitimate. A bill of $48 was also voted to be paid to the plasterer.

Bids will now be received for the wiring of the Tenth ward school addition and the work will be added to completion as soon as possible.

Will Level School Ground.

A measure as introduced that the new high school grounds be leveled up. After some consideration which included the suggestion that the high school athletes be "turned loose" upon the ground, it was decided to instruct the committee on buildings and grounds to have the ground leveled off at a cost not to exceed $250. No black dirt will be added. The ground will merely be leveled so as to make a good athletic field. Bids will be received at once.

Accept Bids for Wood.

Mr. Loeffler suggested that it was about time to let the contract for the usual supply of wood. It was resolved that bids would be accepted for the winter's wood.

Storm windows are to be placed on the north and west sides of the high school.

Salary Increased.

Dr. Evans suggested that the salary of Miss Pratt, who is filling the vacancy made by Mr. Brindley's resignation, be increased. The suggestion was put as a motion and unanimously passed and Miss Pratt will

Children of Two Families in the South Part of the City Engage in Row and Warrants Follows

Charging that her husband refused to support her or their four children after Aug. 1, Mrs. Agnes Eno, South Fourth street, today secured a warrant for the arrest of Charles L. Eno.

On Aug. 17, the Eno family came into prominence, when a daughter, Jennie Eno, was married to Morris Wicks, colored. Since then it appears trouble has been brewing in the family.

On several occasions Mrs. Eno sought a warrant for the arrest of her husband, but Judge Brindley refused. Today he granted the warrant for the arrest of her husband, but Judge Brindley refused. Today he granted the warrant on representation that Eno has refused to support the family.

Charge Assault and Battery.

As a result of a family row, between children of two families, Agnes Dolata, 1731 Market street, today swore out a warrant for the arrest of Florence Niebuhr, 1433 Winnebago street, and younger sisters, Olga Wiestness and Inga Wiestness. The alleged assault is declared to have been committed yesterday.

BELIEVE LA CROSSE MAN MURDERED

An investigation into the alleged suicide of Frank Clark, a former student of the La Crosse high school, at Niles, N. D., a month ago, has been started by W. H. Thomas, Leeds, N. D. Arrests and prosecutions are planned, if enough evidence to convict can be secured. The girl with young Clark accused him of suicide at the time of his death.

FOUR DECISIONS IN LOCAL CASES

SCHULZ VERDICT FOR DAMAGES IS SUSTAINED

NEUMEISTER WINS HIS CASE

Inmate of Insane Asylum Awarded
$2,000 for Overflow of Land;
New Trial in Bank Case

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—Four decisions, in which La Crosse parties were the litigants, were handed down today, when the state supreme court convened for the November term. The cases were argued October 15 and 16.

The case of most importance, and carrying the largest damages is that of Hugh W. Schulz, by his guardian, against the La Crosse City Railway company for $15,000 damages. The judgment of the circuit court of La Crosse county, in which $3,356.41 was awarded the plaintiff, is affirmed.

Young Schultz, who was only 12 years of age, was kicked off a street car on May 18, 1905. The boy was playing about the old La Crosse Mill street car barns, when he received the kick in the thigh from an employee of the company. The man of the assailant of the youngster never was made known.

Permanent injury, it is believed, resulted from the kick. The boy was taken to the La Crosse hospital to have his injuries attended, and later to his home, where he was confined in bed several months. When the trial was on the jury went to the bedside of the little fellow, and heard him give his testimony.

The first trial was begun on Sept. 19, 1906, before Judge Fruit in circuit court at La Crosse. A jury returned a verdict for $3,266.66, with costs, making a total of $3,356.41. The sum asked by the plaintiff was $15,000. Attorney A. E. Bleckman, Jr., La Crosse, assisted by Attorney Humphrey Barton, of St. Paul, Minn., conducted the action for the plaintiffs.

Neumeister Wins.

The Neumeister-Goddard case, which has gained considerable fame in La Crosse county, was decided in favor of the plaintiff, the supreme court affirming the verdict. The case had been to the supreme court twice

WASHINGTON IS AFTER MRS. LLOYD

WANTED FOR PASSING BAD
CHECKS THERE.

BEAUTIFUL PRISONER CROOK

Evidence That She Has Worked Her
Graft All Over the Country Coming in to Authorities.

Evidently handsome Mrs. Amiee (Sickle) Lloyd, formerly of Winona and who many times before her marriage lavishly entertained parties of La Crosse high school boys and girls at her Winona home, is in more trouble. The latest development in her case is that she is wanted in Washington, D. C., for passing worthless checks.

Word to this effect was received in Rochester yesterday when Chief of Police John Gardiner received a dispatch from Richard Sylvester, superintendent of police of Washington, D. C., which said:

"Arrest Aimee Lloyd, wanted here for passing worthless checks. I hear she is in your jail. Answer if we can have her."

Chief of Police Gardiner replied at once but he refused to let the contents of his message be known. It is presumed that Chief Gardiner told the Washington authorities that the Rochester people had plenty of charges against Mrs. Lloyd and that they could have her after they got through with her.

A dispatch from Washington last night said that Mrs. Lloyd operated in Washington and Baltimore last year and that the authorities of either of these cities would like to get a hold of her.

"F. Alberts," Mr. Lloyd, has left Rochester and nobody seems to know where he has gone. He was not aware of the new charges made against his wife.

Mrs. Lloyd's hearing comes up Friday at Rochester and it will not make any difference whether she is liberated or not for she will go back to jail just the same as Washington officials will come for the woman if she is not held to the grand jury at Rochester.

SAY SPOONER FOR ELIHU ROOT'S JOB

EX-SENATOR'S NAME WITH RU-MOR OF ROOT'S RETIREMENT

SECRETARY'S HEALTH POOR

Bacon Is Also Mentioned but Is Not Looked Upon as More Than a Weak Possibility

Washington Bureau of
The La Crosse Tribune.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 4.
(By J. C. Welliver.)

Report: that Secretary Root will soon leave the cabinet as once more in circulation here. They are understood to emanate from well-informed sources and are to the effect that Mr. Root may retire to private life in a few months. The name of ex-Senator John C. Spooner is mentioned as a possible successor.

The fact that Mr. Root is not in robust health is the chief cause of his possible retirement. Ever since he was compelled to go to Muldoon's farm to recuperate it has been recognized here that his tenure of the state department portfolio was uncertain. He came back from Muldoon's apparently much improved but his trip to Mexico told severely on him and he is not now in the robust health that a man should be to perform the extremely trying duties of head of the state department. This has led him to give serious consideration to quitting his place in the cabinet and retiring to private life, where he can more carefully safeguard his health and conserve his strength.

Root's Record Good.

Mr. Root could retire from the state department with the feeling that he had made an enviable record. In the list of secretaries of state, few can be found that have conducted state affairs with more ability or with better results. He has accomplished more toward bringing about close relations between this country and Latin-America than had been done in all the administrations before his time. He has done much to make the consular service more effective and to better the diplomatic service, though it cannot be seriously argued that there is not room for a great deal more improvement in these services. Foreign relations

NEWTON CASE IN COURT TOMORROW

LITIGATION OVER CHILDREN AND MAINTENANCE

MOTHER IS THE PLAINTIFF

Seeks Remuneration for Caring for Them After Divorce; Minor
Motions Up Today.

With twenty-nine cases to be tried in eighteen days, circuit court convened today for the adjourned fall term, one day ahead of the date set. Judge Fruit occupied the bench at the convening of court today.

An order, confirming the sale of the real estate of the La Crosse Soap company, by Isadore Schilling, trustee, was granted by Judge Fruit.

Minor motions, and cases from other counties in the district occupied the attention of Judge Fruit during the morning and afternoon.

This afternoon Judge Fruit heard the arguments in the suit of Mary Kreps against the estate of George Bauer, her father. The girl was cut off without a cent in the will of her father, and is suing for her share in an estate valued at $25,000. Judge Fruit heard the testimony last summer at Viroqua, Wis. The litigants reside in Vernon county.

Tomorrow, the real term of court will begin, with the suit of Mrs. Rose Newton, Minneapolis, Minn., against Marion Newton, yardmaster for the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road at Watertown, Wis., for the custody of the minor children, and also $2,633 for care and maintenance of the children during the time Mrs. Newton has cared for them. Charges of peculiar shrewdness are made by each of the parties, the defendant claiming that his former wife obtained possession of the children by fraud at one time.

RESIDUE ON SALE

O. C. Woll, received of C. C. Severson, who made a voluntary assignment last spring, today filed his report in circuit court. Woll realized $323.75 from the stock, and after paying various claim has a residue of $143.41.

BADGER LUMBER CASES WEDNESDAY

EAU CLAIRE MEN FACE SAME
CHARGE AS BORAH

A LAND FRAUD CONSPIRACY

Barber Lumber Company On Grill at Madison With Uncle Sam as Prosecutor

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—The sequel to the case of Senator Borah, indicted by the grand jury of the federal court in Idaho, but afterwards acquitted of conspiracy in land fraud, will be enacted in the United States district court here Wednesday afternoon, when two Eau Claire men will be given a hearing.

At the time the indictment was returned against Senator Borah, indictments of a like nature were returned against Sumner G. Moon and J. T. Barber of Eau Claire. The specific charge of conspiracy is that that individuals took up land out in Idaho and afterward turned it over to the Barber Land company, it being alleged that the whole plan of taking up the land was not that the individuals should be homesteaders, but that they ultimately expected that some company, owning a large tract, might cut the timber from the land.

The hearing which starts in the federal court Wednesday afternoon before Judge J. V. Quarles is to determine primarily, whether the two Eau Claire men will be compelled to go to Idaho to stand trial.

The case has a long history and the legal steps are rather complex. When Barber and Moon were indicted the papers were sent to United States District Attorney W. G. Wheeler of Janesville. He got out warrants against the two. As a man cannot be taken from one United States court district to another without a sort of preliminary hearing, or requisition, this was given them at Eau Claire recently. They were held and technically are in the custody of the United States marshal. Barber and Moon appeal by suing out a writ of habeas corpus.

On Wednesday District Attorney Wheeler, representing the federal government, will make his return at the same time asking an order of the court to take them to Idaho for trial. The defendants will demur to this and then there will be arguments on the law in the case.

The defendants will contend that there is not sufficient evidence to hold them for trial; and that the statute of limitation applies. The United States district attorney will argue that it is not three years since the last alleged over act was committed. The argument will take the larger part of Thursday also.

MR. BILLIK GETS ANOTHER RESPITE

CONDEMNED MURDERER OF THE
VZRAIS NOT TO HANG FRIDAY

ANOTHER MYSTERIOUS DEATH

Husband of Woman Billik Accused Dies Suddenly and Suspicion
Is Aroused

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Judge Barnes has announced he will sign the bill of exceptions granting Herman Billik, sentenced to hang Friday for murdering the Vzrai family, a stay of execution until January.

A Mysterious Death.

The decision followed quickly on the mysterious death yesterday afternoon of William Nieman, husband of Emma Vzrai Nieman, the state's chief witness in the Billik case, who charged that Billik poisoned her father and four sisters, and caused her mother to commit suicide after he had spent most of the money the mother got in life insurance.

It is stated by the court that the stay of execution was granted to give the police an opportunity to investigate the death of Nieman, the theory that he was also poisoned having been advanced.

The death of Nieman appears to have great possibilities from the viewpoint of Billik's interests. Billik maintains he is innocent, and that Mrs. Nieman committed the whole-sale poisoning.

"My husband had been sick with rheumatism for several days," said Mrs. Nieman. "We did not think he was dangerously ill until he suddenly gasped for breath and expired."

STRONG SUPPORT OF EKERN BY THE LA CROSSE MERCHANTS

MR. DOERFLINGER EXPOSES WINONA N. G. BOGEY MAN

SCARE AIMED AT COUNTRY MERCHANTS PALPABLE FRAUD

IT'S WINONA OR LA CROSSE

One of These Cities Will Get Trade
Now Going to Former and Badger City Should Get It

At least part of the mystery behind the long discrimination of the Northwestern and Green Bay railroads against La Crosse and in favor of Winona, whereby schedules have been so arranged as to send the Trempealeau valley trade to the latter city while denying it access to the former, is explained by William Doerflinger. Mr. Doerflinger at one time conducted a branch of the Park store in Winona, and is familiar with conditions there. To a Tribune reporter he said:

"The Northwestern, which is presumed to control the Green Bay, is pretty much the whole thing in Winona, while in La Crosse it is at a disadvantage because it has no warehouses here, while its competitors, the St. Paul and the Burlington, have. La Crosse merchants, therefore, patronize the latter roads much to the exclusion of the Northwestern, because they do not have to move large shipments immediately on arrival to their own warehouses, thus necessitating a second haul to their stores as the goods are wanted. So the Northwestern, which gets the patronage of most of the Winona merchants and but little of that of the La Crosse retail merchants, naturally throws business toward Winona, to clinch its chances of hauling the orders consumed by the Trempealeau valley clientele of the stores up there."

Only a Few Lines Involved.

"There is one matter that should be cleared up in the minds of the merchants of the towns along the Green Bay," continued Mr. Doerflinger. "I see the Winona newspapers are arguing that, as La Crosse is a much better city than Winona and has better stores, access to La Crosse will deprive the stores of these towns of trade they now enjoy."

This is not true, and a specific statement of the facts will show it up as insincere argument. It is 27 miles from Marshland Junction to La Crosse and 51 miles from Alma Center, the outpost of the Green Bay trade area, to Marshland Junction making a total of 84 miles. There is not the slightest reason for merchants in Trempealeau valley to fear, therefore, that the ordinary and regular trade of their patrons will go to La Crosse. There are certain lines which it is not profitable for small country merchants to carry, and to buy these citizens in the Trempealeau valley must go to larger markets. It will be Winona or La Crosse, and the character and amount of the trade that gets away from the home stores of these towns will be the same whether it goes to La Crosse, or Winona, as it has been doing.

Not After Everything.

Moreover, I can say for the merchants of La Crosse that they do not expect or desire to influence the regular trade that belongs to the smaller towns to leave them. We realize that upon the prosperity of these stores depends largely the prosperity of the entire territory around them, and that unless that territory prospers there will be no profitable trade for anybody. It is our position that there is a class of merchandise that Trempealeau valley must seek outside its boundaries. As between Winona, a Minnesota city, and La Crosse, a Wisconsin city, we submit that La Crosse should have this Wisconsin patronage. We believe the proposed change in the train schedules will give La Crosse most of the Trempealeau valley trade now going to Winona, and that it will not give La Crosse anything more than that. I believe that the merchants of the affected area will agree with business which is at stake in a purely inter-city contest between this city and Winona. It is the part of loyalty to take this stand, as well as the part of common sense, for the money that comes here from the Trempealeau valley helps to pay Wisconsin taxes, and in that way goes back in part to the people who spend it.

E. C. HIGBEE DRAWS FINAL PETITIONS

RAILROAD CASE WILL BE PUSHED FROM THIS END

TWO MERCHANTS' MEETINGS

Merchants' Protective Association and Business Men's Association
Meet Tomorrow

Events are rapidly shaping themselves into a strong public indorsement of the action taken by Speaker Ekern to secure direct train connections between the Green Bay in Trempealeau valley and La Crosse via the Northwestern. The developments of the past few days are as follows:

Attorney E. C. Higbee, who first became active in the prosecution of the case from the La Crosse end, has drawn petitions in conformity with the law, which will have the effect of modifying one feature of the Ekern plan. These petitions bring the Northwestern and Burlington into hearing, whereas Mr. Ekern had merely cited the Green Bay. The principle change is that it will now be sought to force the Northwestern evening train north to leave La Crosse for Marshland a few moments earlier, and the Green Bay out of Winona for Marshland, Whitehall, etc., a few moments later, the two meeting at Marshland to permit the transfer of passengers from La Crosse to Green Bay points. Mr. Ekern's plan was to make the Green Bay wait the entire time, which is approximately an hour.

These petitions will be given a thorough local circulation, and will be promptly forwarded to Madison for the consideration of the commission, which has set the hearing for Nov. 22.

A meeting of the La Crosse Merchants' Protective association has been decided upon, to be held tomorrow morning. The purpose is to pass resolutions commending the course of Speaker Ekern, and to add the moral support of the association to the backing given the plan.

A similar meeting of the La Crosse Business Men's association will be held for the same purposes, probably some time tomorrow.

It is understood that Attorney Higbee, who is intimately familiar with the conditions complained of, will be invited to address one, or perhaps both, of the meetings.

ELECTION BULLETIN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—The weather bureau makes a special election announcement for today. Fair weather prevails in all sections of the country except in parts of the lake region, New York and New England, where there are areas of clouds and local rains. The temperature is moderate everywhere.

TOLEDO, O., Nov. 5.—A back, early vote was cast in the election today. Whitlock, incumbent, for mayor, is conceded by both the old parties to be the winner.

COLUMBUS, Nov. 5.—An extraordinary heavy vote is being cast here. It is estimated that 15,000 of the 39,000 who registered, had voted by 11 o'clock. The chances favor O. A. Bond, republican, for mayor. He is backed by the saloon interests.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 4.—The weather is ideal for the election, and early today it was believed that nearly the entire registration of 94,000 will be cast today. Tom L. Johnson is a 2 to 1 favorite for mayor over the republican candidate, Congressman Burton, who is voted by Roosevelt and Taft.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 5.—Election day dawned cloudy. John O. Sheatz, republican, and John G. Nerman, democrat, are candidates for the only state office, the treasurership. Sheatz seems to be the winner.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—President Roosevelt arrived in Jersey City at 7:08 this morning on his way to Oyster Bay to vote. He will remain there an hour and then return to Washington.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—President Roosevelt arrived at Oyster Bay at 9:30, voted five minutes later, being in the booth but four minutes, and left for Washington at 10:30.

FREEPORT DEFIES LEAGUE'S ACTIONRE-ELECTS RIOTOUS MR. MCCARTHY ON BOARD*DIRECTOR IS DISFRANCHISED

State League at Annual Meeting Forbade His Holding Office for 3
Years, But Disregarded

Defying the action of the Wisconsin-Illinois baseball league, disfranchising Director C. G. McCarthy of the Freeport club for holding an official position for a period of three years, the Freeport stockholders have re-elected McCarthy on the directorate for next season.

McCarthy's expulsion by the league from active participation was caused by his being mixed up in the riots in which several La Crosse players were assaulted in the final series at the Illinois town.

What action is to be taken by the league at its meeting in January as a result of the defiant action of the Cannons remains to be seen, but it is very likely that the riotous McCarthy will be forced to get off of the official board of the club.

Other directors elected by Freeport were Frank Lohr, David Swan, William E. Fry and George Tinsley. The total attendance there during the season was 32,973.

PUTTING BADGERS THROUGH "STUNTS"

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 5.—Wisconsin's football team came out of the Iowa game without a serious injury and all of the regulars appeared for practice at Camp Randall last night. As most of them still felt the effects of the fight, Coaches Hutchins and McCarthy merely put them through light signal practice. Several new plays were taught to the team, which was taken to one end of the field away from the gaze of possible spies.

Both coaches realize that the game against Indiana next Saturday is one of the stiffest propositions that Wisconsin will tackle this season, and no stone will be left unturned by them. The men are working with an enthusiasm that resembles the old Wisconsin spirit and when scrimmage begins tomorrow against the freshmen and scrubs, it is probable that fierce playing will be seen. Osthoff is expected to be out some time this week, with Dittman, who has been laid up with a bad leg. What will happen to Wilcox, who played a splendid game against Iowa at full back, when Osthoff returns to the game, is uncertain. The students would like to see him tried at end position.

KONETCHY RANKS HIGH IN SCORES

Eddie Konetchy, the La Crosse first baseman for the St. Louis Cardinals, ranked sixteenth among national league first basemen, according to the fielding averages just compiled by President Harry Pulliam and assistants. Among the young first basemen of the big league, Eddie had a good average, but the older heads outclassed him.

Konetchy participated in 91 games, had 922 putouts, 71 assists, 25 errors, and an average of .975. During his engagement with the St. Louis club he had 1,018 chances.

Tex says he will go as high as $40,000 for the match.

SPORTING NEWSGAMES CLARIFIED WESTERN CONDITION*NO LONGER ANY DOUBT OF THE CHAMPIONSHIP*LA CROSSE HAS BIG CHANCE

Tie Game in Eau Claire Saturday
Taken to Mean if Locals Defeat
Them They Have Crown

Saturday's football results served to clarify the haze existing over the title in the middle west, while a mixed-up muddle remains in the east. Coach Stagg's maroon warriors earned title to the honor in the west, by taking Minnesota into camp, while Carlisle has been eliminated in the struggle among the eastern colleges and universities.

While the larger schools in the west have settled the dispute the smaller schools of Wisconsin, including the secondary colleges and also high schools have much to fight for. Lawrence university is no longer a contender for state honors, while Marquette college and Ripon university will fight for the championship emblem. The game next Saturday probably will decide the result.

In high school circles, La Crosse claims to have a chance to win the title. By playing Eau Claire to a tie on Saturday, after the Pineknolls had decisively beaten Chippewa Falls, puts La Crosse in line. An opportunity will be given the locals to retrieve the defeat at the hands of Sparta, one week ago.

St. John's academy of Delafield, Wis., has a chance to win the title of preparatory schools for Wisconsin, and perhaps Illinois and Iowa.

Capron's Task too Hard.

As expected, Chicago triumphed over the Gophers, the burden of defending Minnesota's laurels proving a task too severe for George Capron. Coach Stagg's Maroons worked and played like a perfect machine. They swept aside the giants of the north as though they were pigmies and outplayed them at every stage, far more than the score of 18 to 12 would indicate. The Maroons were a stone wall against which the Gophers hurled themselves time and again only to fall back exhausted and helpless. By superhuman efforts, and coached by the cries of thousands of adoring rooters, the Gophers worked the ball to within striking distance of Chicago's goal, and it was here that George Capron's marvelous toe was called into play. He had several trials at field goals and shot the sphere through safely three times, scoring all the points of his team.

Chicago's showing demonstrated the fact that Stagg has built up the greatest team he ever has turned out, surpassing the championship squad of 1905. Just how effective the team is against the highly polished eleven of the east will be ascertained, in a measure, on Nov. 23, when the Maroons engage Carlisle, the redskin squad that rode roughshod over all its eastern opponents, but fell before the gritty Tigers of old Princeton.

Princeton's Victory a Surprise
The easy victory of the Tigers over the Indians on Saturday probably furnished the biggest surprise to the football dopesters. Princeton showed a complete reversal over the form it displayed on the Saturday preceding, when Cornell trimmed it, 6 to 5. The Indians, on the contrary, slumped woefully. They did not execute their plays with the lightning speed they are capable of, and all of their tricks were nipped before they were well started. Princeton's victory simplifies the eastern situation. Cornell, which beat the Tigers is scheduled to play Pennsylvania, the team that the redskins humbled, 26 to 6. The Cornell-Pennsylvania contest will be held on Thanksgiving day. It is doubtful if Cornell can turn the trick on the Quakers, and if they lose, the Tigers may claim the eastern laurels without a dissenting voice.

Michigan's position will be decided on Nov. 16, when the Wolverines and Pennsylvania clash at Ann Arbor. If Michigan beats the Quakers by as decisive a score as the Indians rolled up, and Chicago falls before the redskins, then the Wolverines will have to be reckoned with when it comes to the determination of the western title, apart from the big nine championship.

MILWAUKEE TEAM MAY COME HERE

The Oechsles bowling team of the North West league, who was taken Sunday to Racine by Secretary Lindendahl of the Milwaukee Bowling association, may play in this city sometime in January.

Eugene Hunt, manager of the al-leys, says that he was in Milwaukee several days ago and that the team although preparing a schedule had not yet left the city. The team will soon begin its tour.

While at Racine the Oechsles beat the Topaz team three straight. The Topaz team challenged the Oechsles to another game, however, which will be pulled off on the 24th.

The team will no doubt arouse great interest in the event that they play in La Crosse.

BIG SCHNEIBERG IS MILWAUKEE'SNATIONAL COMMISSION OVER-*RULES DETROIT'S CLAIM*HAVENOR'S TITLE IS UPHELD*Former La Crosse Pitcher Will Be*on Beer City's Twirling Staff*Next Season

Pitcher Frank Schneiberg, formerly pitcher for the La Crosse State league team, claimed by Detroit, has been awarded to Milwaukee by the national commission. There had been considerable dispute over the title to the big Bohemian for the last two months. Detroit bought Schneiberg out of the Wisconsin State league last fall, but when he was tried out this spring, he failed to come up to expectations. Detroit asked for and received waivers on Schneiberg. Jack Doyle, then manager of the Brewers, purchased Schneiberg, but gave Detroit the right to reclaim the player if it desired him. For a time Schneiberg showed poor form and Doyle planned to dispose of him.

The wishes of the Detroit management were first consulted, and Secretary Navin, in a letter to President C. S. Havenor of the Brewers, virtually relinquished all claim to the player. When Schneiberg began to improve, Detroit sought to have its claim reinstated. The commission at first awarded Schneiberg to Detroit, but when the protest of Mr. Havenor was considered, that decision was reversed. Detroit had traded Schneiberg to Indianapolis. That deal is off.

The national commission has another case somewhat similar to the Schneiberg affair. It concerns Pitcher W. J. Campbell, bought by the Cincinnati club from Harrisburg, in the Tri-State league. Campbell was owned by Louisville two seasons ago, and jumped his contract to play with Harrisburg. He was reinstated recently by the national commission, and Cincinnati purchased him. The contention of the Louisville club is that if Campbell is eligible to play with any club under the national agreement he should be returned to Louisville first, that club having a prior right. The commission will grant Louisville a rehearing in the case.

PRESTON UMPIRES CLAIM VICTORY

RUSHFORD, Minn., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—After an exciting contest of more than two hours, Rushford won out on Preston's grounds with a score that they claim was 6 to 5. The game was a continual wrangle and any debated question was always decided in Preston's favor. When Rushford made a run of twenty-five yards in the first half, the Preston umpire called them back saying he didn't have a chance to see the play started. When Preston made their touchdown their quarterback made a forward pass which could have been blocked had not one of Preston's men held Larson of Rushford so that he could not move.

Rushford played all around Preston in every manner and if the decisions had been fair the score would have been far different. Preston claims this game as well as Rushford and the cause of it is that with but three minutes to play and the score 6 to 5 in Rushford's favor, Preston was forced to punt. Preston's right tackle in running after the ball hit it with his arm before it had touched the ground or an opponent, and picking it up and ran for a touchdown. Rushford's referee seeing him hit the ball called him back saying that he had no right to do so. The Preston umpire then came up and said that he never hit the ball and immediately the spectators crowded on the field and there was danger of the referees being mobbed. When the umpire backed by a crowd decided the play in favor of Preston, Rushford quit, having beaten the team but not being able to defeat the whole town. Upon arriving at the hotel in-lust was added to injury by finding their room entered and their clothes tied into knots.

Rushford intends, when Preston comes here on the 22nd, to give them an exhibition of good playing and are going to make them scratch for any scores they make.

Thursday evening the Luther league gave a Halloween party at the residence of J. Julrud. Considering the condition of the weather a good turnout was reported and the entertainment furnished was fine.

SCROFULA AN INHERITANCEOF DISEASE AND SUFFERING

No truth is more forcibly manifested in physical life than the old saying "like begets like;" for just as the offspring of healthy ancestry are blessed with pure, rich blood, insuring health and strength, so the children of blood tainted parentage inherit a polluted circulation to burden their existence with disease and suffering. Swollen glands about the neck, brittle bones, weak eyes, pale, waxy complexions, running sores and ulcers and general poor health, are the usual ways in which Scrofula is manifested. In some cases the blood is so filled with the scrofulous germs and tubercular matter that from birth life is made miserable with suffering. Others who inherit the disease succeed in holding the trouble in check during young, vigorous life, but when the system has begun to weaken and lose its natural vitality, and especially after a spell of sickness, the ravages of the disease will commence, and in a great many cases terminate in Consumption. S. S. S. is the very best treatment for Scrofula. It renovates the entire circulation and drives out the scrofulous and tubercular deposits. S. S. S. is the greatest of all blood purifiers, and it not only goes to the very bottom of the trouble and removes the cause and cures the disease, but it supplies the weak, anaemic blood with the healthful properties it is in need of. S. S. S. is made entirely of healing, cleansing roots, herbs and barks, and is an absolutely safe remedy for young or old. Book on the blood and any medical advice about Scrofula given free of charge.

THE CITY OF LA CROSSE, CR.

Preaching from the text, "Render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's and unto God the things that are God's," Rev. N. C. Moller digressed from the purely spiritual to take to task the citizens of La Crosse who, having money and power and therefore being obligated, are in a position to contribute to the material as well as to the educational and religious welfare of the city. No sermon that has been heard in a local pulpit, to our notion, has deserved more studious attention than does this one, the essential portion of which we hereafter quote:

"Who knows any better than you business men that the question that determines the relation of the individual to every phase of life, the question that is the motive of the great books of commercial life, viz., as Dun or Bradstreet, the question that above all others determines a man's character before God and men lies right here in these words of Christ. Do you pay your tribute to whom tribute is due? Do you pay your debts? How do you act in regard to your obligations? Here is where selfishness and dishonesty and all manner of sharp practice and things unworthy of Christian manhood come out before the world. What anguish can come to a man, who is humiliated by the fact of the issue of neglected obligations; what deep regret when he realizes that by proper self control he might have preserved the honor and respect of men and have his life summed up at least in some fair balance.

"I appeal to the subjects of my address as to American citizens and men who should find supreme obligation in the larger responsibilities of life in the state and church. I bid you think of what this responsibility means to the man with honest and upright intentions. Your home in this community, your language, your children in the public schools, your investments of money or labor, your name in the voting lists of the city, your place in the census of this magnificent state and this mighty nation, your natural pride in your city, your love for free institutions and the splendid purpose that has inspired and directed the policy of your country from the beginning, all remind you not merely of splendid privilege but of great obligation.

"We are, I trust, directly interested in our city, this fair city of La Crosse. Its success depends on the character of our citizens, we well know. There are not a few cities of this state in friendly competition. What is going to be the result. I regret to say that the outlook is not very hopeful at present. Other cities seem to be expressing more ability and the offering of a finer tribute by the leading citizens for their success. We see many things that cause satisfaction, but we see no startling evidence that the citizen has arisen to any remarkable sense of his personal obligation. Surely the ability of a thousand of our leading citizens to promote the town is not expressed by the 'booster button' and its motto or a couple of picnics for the advantage of a few lines of local trade.

"The fact expressed in the real evidence of our advance is that we have hardly more than the population of ten years ago and also that we have less men and more factory girls.

Some people claim to have a right to suspect that there is too much for self and too little for city, in most all of the movements of civic enterprise of recent years. It is said that there is too much of how will it affect my business or the votes of my party and too little of what can I do as a responsible citizen of this commonwealth, for its welfare and progress?"

Much is to be said upon this subject, both in affirmation and in explanation or defense. The accusation contained in these paragraphs is that the city has not progressed as it should. The conclusion is that responsibility for its failure to progress is chargeable to local capitalists and politicians who have not done what they might and should have done to promote municipal growth and prosperity.

It is true that La Crosse has not grown in population, appreciably, during the past ten years, and that this is partly due to unwarranted conservatism cannot be doubted. But, to be perfectly fair, there are two reasons, or a reason and an explanation, for this condition, which must be recognized.

The reason is that during these ten years La Crosse has been in a state of transition, so to speak, changing from a saw-mill city to a general manufacturing and jobbing city. The elimination of the pine forests has been followed by the disappearance of the great saw mills that formerly were the sustenance of La Crosse. New factories, not so rapidly and numerous as might have been wished perhaps, but of substantial value, have come and in most of them there are investments of local capital. But for every factory that came, during that decade, a saw mill went away. With every saw mill that was removed saw-mill employees left, thus offsetting the employees of the new factory, so that the new no more than balanced the old. Could we have added the industries and accretions of population to La Crosse just as it was ten years ago, his would be a city of at least 40,000 now, and proportionately wealthier in industry and prosperity.

So much for the reason, now for the explanation: Many and great investments of local capital have been made that "went wrong." There was the Brown Harvester company and the Threshing Machine Co. These and many more that went the same way have had the effect to discourage local capital! Men do not go to lose money just because they have it, or for local pride. Nor was lack of ability on the part of investors at the bottom of the failures. The truth is that most of the men who have wealth here made it in the lumber business. They know that business, but it is gone. They are not experienced or skilled in general lines of manufacturing, and therefore most of their recent investments have been intrusted to the hands of others, others in the selection of whom the capitalists have been unfortunate. This state of affairs has put a damper on the enthusiasm for local investment of local capital.

That is the case against Rev. Moller, as champion of industrial progression. It is not all against him, however, for he has stated a true case. It is neither unjust nor unkind to admit that discouragement, in many cases, has come too easily and conveniently. Perhaps a true realization of the personal obligation that wealth imposes would have compelled greater perseverance. Perhaps, to use a hackneyed expression, capital has been too timid.

At any rate, it is not too late. Times were never riper for profitable investment in La Crosse institutions. The city has been the beneficiary of an intelligently aggressive policy of public improvement and today is outranked in that particular by none of its class. The loss of the saw mills has been offset, and future acquisitions of new industries will be net gain. There is a soundness about the place; there is a tone of business health and prosperity in the community. What better opportunity could be asked for the seed of this public spirited sermon to take root and grow! Men love to leave behind them some mark of their activities and achievements. What greater, more durable memorial can any man provide for himself than a mighty factory that shall earn the food and raiment of a thousand men, and school and rear their children? How much greater the honor such a monument will tell posterity than is told by the silent grandeur of the non-productive and profitless monolith?

There is yet time to "Render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's and unto God the things that are God's."

The action of the Cargill Coal company in rebelling against the alleged unfair methods employed in weighing freight tends toward popular benefit. In the long run the people should, and they often do, get the advantage derived from the reduction of expenses. Even if the public does not profit by a favorable ruling on the Cargill complaint directly through paying just that much less for coal, it will be the richer to the extent to which citizens are shippers and pay money for freight to the railroads.

Cummins, of Iowa, author of the Iowa Idea, is in Washington to see the president. Hence industrious rumor has him anything from the next ambassador to the kaiser's court. And that secretive politician would say nothing more definite than that "capitalization of corporations should be based exactly upon the value of the corporate property," which hints that Cummins has not lost sight of that little political matter which he and Senator Allison must settle between them.

The threatened uprising of the Sioux and Utes emphasizes the impossibility of cultivating in the Indian any conception of the meaning of civilization. These children of nature, blind to their impotence or moved by a fatalistic indifference to destruction, are courting their own annihilation in a cause far from worthy of their heroic courage. The evolution of the Caucasian made a big jump if there intervened no intermediate stage between him and the raging savagery.

The conduct of a citizen in violently resisting the performance of duty by the health officer and in wilfully subjecting the public to a contagious disease indicates a nature so lost to an appreciation of human obligations as to be incapable of profiting by the most drastic punishment the law can inflict. However, the effort should be made, if only for the lesson it may teach those qualified to comprehend.

The field mice destroyed $3,000,000 worth of grain last year, according to a government report. And to think the boomers of the wheat market had not the ingenuity to send this fact to the relief of the weary and hackneyed green bug!

CHAPTER XVII
"She charms me," Trafford said, when he recounted the interview to Mrs. George, later in the day.

Since his wife's death he had come to depend a good deal on Laura. Her little sitting-room offered him a refuge in times of loneliness, while the common-sense of her conversation was a relief from the strain that life had lately taken on.

"I can understand that," Laura returned, looking up from her stitching. "All her instincts are so right that one feels placed in the wrong, whether one is wrong or not. But there are two things of which I am more and more convinced as I grow older. The one is, that nothing is more precious to life than the love and peace of families. And the other is this, that to preserve them it must happen from time to time that some one has to yield, and, perhaps, to suffer."

"Exactly," Trafford agreed, warmly. "I can't save her from suffering, can I? God knows I would, if I could."

"I'm sure of that, dear Uncle Trafford. One can't have a child of one's own without knowing that in everything it has to bear one suffers twice one's self."

"Twice? I suffer twenty times. Since this thing has happened to my little girl there's nothing she feels that isn't multiplied in me, over and over again, like a reflection in double mirrors. I give you my word, Laura, that I rack my brains to explain why the one event in all the world that could have hurt me most should have come upon me. It almost carries me back to the belief in a God who occupies Himself with the details of our affairs and brings the moral consequences of our acts upon us; and I'd given up that idea long ago."

"I often think," Laura observed, in her musing tone, "that it's easier to suffer one's self than to see some one we love have to do it."

"Quite so. Quite so. You can see that in Paula. That's the way she feels. My God! she's a brick if ever there was one. She'd take everything on herself, if she could. But she can't."

"No, of course not," Laura said quickly. "It's only the very strong who can do that. I don't suppose any woman is capable of vicarious suffering, and there must be very few men."

"What do you mean by that?" Trafford questioned, in the slightest tone of pique.

"Well, I don't know what I mean," Laura smiled, frankly. "If I mean anything, it is there must be here and there a man strong enough to take the cause of suffering from others, by bearing all the pain himself."

"Humph!" Trafford ejaculated. He was not used to the suggestion that there were men in the world stronger than himself.

"Of course, I don't know anything about it," Laura admitted. "One only feels in that way about one's child."

"You can protect your child," Trafford argued, "as long as it will follow you. Then you keep it to the line of your own defences. The minute it goes outside, into a course of its own, you have no more power."

"Do you know, dear Uncle Trafford," Laura said, "I'm beginning to think that just as, at first, our children's happiness depends on following us, so, later, our happiness depends on following them?"

"I mean recognizing the fact that they become independent entities, with independent rights. I mean acknowledging their rights with frankness and sympathy, and keeping as close to them as possible, whatever they may do."

"And suppose they do what you don't approve of?"

"I admit that's the hard part. I have to take for granted that the parent is the wiser and the stronger and the more able to endure."

"That's all very fine! But, now, to take an extreme illustration: suppose your little Paul were to grow up and go to the bad? Then where would your theories be?"

"He couldn't go so far to the bad that I shouldn't be as near to him as I could, offering him at least the help that came from my love."

"Suppose he did worse. Suppose he were to marry—well, say a chorus-girl, or something of that sort. What then?"

"I don't mean to say that I shouldn't be sorry; but I should do my best to take her as my daughter, as he would remain my son."

"I don't believe you could do it."

"Very likely I couldn't, but I should try. You see, I feel so strongly on the question of personal independence."

"But you can't leave much personal independence if you're going to preserve the love and peace of families, of which you speak."

"Oh, don't you think so? It seems to me just the other way. I've often thought that most of the domestic misery I ever heard of came from the fact that the people who had to live together didn't know where to draw the line between what they could claim and what they couldn't claim from each other. A family isn't an autocracy, is it, uncle, dear? It's rather a federation of states, in which each member keeps its sovereign rights. There never can be love and peace unless, those rights are freely recognized."

"It strikes me that you're arguing rather queerly," Trafford commented, after a short pause. "It almost seems to me as if you were telling me I oughtn't to interfere between Paula and this young man."

SPOTLIGHTS

"The Prince of Pilsen."

Even the apricious appetite of the jaded is coaxed by "The Prince of Pilsen's" rare combination of fascinating melody and wholesome fun. The enjoyment of the big audience at the La Crosse theatre on Thursday evening will be divided between the exquisite melody of the work, and its clever comedy situations. You will laugh, as everyone who has a spark of humor must laugh, at Hans Wagner's constant query, "Haf you efer bin in Zinzinnati?" The chorus said to be composed of many pretty girls and the ensembles are rendered with fine melodic effect. Pretty Peggy Ballou contributes a dainty little dance as the New Orleans girl, and Lillian Lawson, Frenchly chic, does a whirlwind dance that exhibits great nimbleness of limb. A double orchestra will be a feature of the event.

At the Bijou.

To a packed house the Bijou opened their weeks' entertainment last evening and it is one of the best performances that has been seen at the local house for the past season. The entertainment is opened with H. L. Zeda, who is said to be the original fiery dragon of the Ginger Bread Man company. He opens his entertainment with the imitation of a dragon and proves to be one of the star contortionists on the stage, his work being clean and well liked.

Mr. Louis LaVallée renders the illustrated song, "Neath the Old Cherry Tree, Sweet Marie," which was followed by the comedy boxers, Ed. B. and Rolla White, their act is something new and Mrs. White proves to be very clever in the art of boxing.

Armstrong and Davis in their musical comedy, the Amateur Chauffeur, are headliners in their act and keep the audience in a continuous uproar. Mr. Armstrong makes a decided hit with his song, the "Millionaire."

The feature act at the Bijou this week is the marvelous Cowles family, introducing Little Marguerite, who is without doubt a great child performer. Her work on the rings is of the best class, and her pleasant smile wins the heart of the audience during her entire act. The moving pictures, "The Hypnotist's Revenge," wins the usual applause. Kreutz orchestra was the usual Monday night feature.

WHERE WOMAN RULES.

(Chicago Journal.)

The Khasis of India, numbering 176,614 are completely surrounded by a great population with widely different customs. Yet they have preserved, it is said, one of the most perfect examples still surviving of the matriarchate.

The mother is the head and only bond of union in the family. In the most primitive part of the community she is the only owner of real property, and through her alone is inheritance transmitted.

On marriage the man leaves his father and mother and cleaves to his wife, as seems to have been the custom when the book of Genesis was written, living with her in his mother-in-law's house.

The sun is feminine and the moon masculine, and feminine nouns predominate in the language.

Would lure his guests to ruin's brink,
That it was Satan's swill.
'Twas then that they began to haunt Till now he's pale and worn and

And cocktails haunt him still.

speech,
The water wagon gave a screech
That caused his nerves to thrill;
In vain he sought a distant state,
For there, 'tis grievous to relate,
Those cocktails haunt him still.

He waded out—too tall to float—
And saved her from the spill;

HAND CRUSHED MAKING COUPLING

T. H. ALLEN INJURED WHILE WORKING FOR RAILWAY

WIFE RECEIVES WORD TODAY

Injured Man Who Is Well Known
Here Has One of His Fingers
Amputated as a Result

Mrs. T. H. Allen has received a letter from her husband, stating that he met with a serious accident while coupling a car at Alouise. The account of the accident was brief, but from what was stated it is learned that Mr. Allen was making a coupling when his hand was caught and crushed. It was found necessary to amputate the forefinger on his right hand. Mr. Allen will be laid up for some time as a result of the injury.

GETS POSITION AS BRAKEMAN

His run will be between Savannah and Minneapolis. Mr. Miller will make his home in La Crosse. He has been employed during the summer by Captain Thompson on the government river work.

BURSTING OF AN ARTERY IS FATAL

MRS. CATHERINE RITTER IS CALLED AWAY SUDDENLY

SCREAM STARTLES FAMILY

Rushing to Wife's Room Husband Finds Her Bleeding to Death—
Doctors Find Her a Corpse

Mrs. Catherine Ritter, 706 Windsor street, died suddenly at 8 o'clock last evening as the result of the bursting of an artery in her lung. Mrs. Ritter, who has always been in good health, had gone to her room, preparatory to retiring, when the rest of the family was startled by a scream. She called to her husband and told him to bring her a drink, as she was bleeding. He at once rushed for the water and when he returned she fell to the floor in a swoon, dying in a few minutes. Doctors Miller and Leuck were immediately summoned, but she was dead, having bled to death before they arrived. The announcement of her death will be a shock to her large circle of friends.

The deceased was 50 years old and has been a resident of the North side for the last 24 years. She was born in Germany. She is survived by a husband, John Ritter, and six children, four boys and two girls. The funeral will be held Thursday morning at 9 o'clock from the St. John's church. Rev. Father Kaluza will officiate at the services, and Will Dwyer will attend to the arrangements. Interment will be made at the Catholic cemetery.

The menu is always in order. Hardly anybody hates his relations enough to be willing to die to get rid of them.

CANDIDATES OUT FOR ALDERMAN

GEO. B. MARVIN TO RUN FOR VALENTINE'S PLACE

HAS BEEN A PROHIBITIONIST

But Will Make the Fight as a Republican Candidate—Jameson, Democrat

A special election will no doubt be held in the Ninth ward next month to fill the vacancy of the office of alderman on account of the resignation recently of Alderman Barney H. Valentine, who has gone to Spokane, Wash.

Alderman Schulze of the Fifth ward tendered his resignation last May, but it was not accepted, and Mr. Schulze will no doubt be asked to retain the office, as he has had so much experience in the council that he is therefore considered a valuable member.

Mr. Schulze resigned on account of the fact that he has moved out of the ward.

Chairman of the republican committee in the Ninth ward, Peter A. Peterson, of 1347 Rose street, has asked George B. Marvin to run.

In an interview Mr. Marvin said that the chairman has asked him to be a candidate on the republican ticket and that he would do so.

Mr. Marvin was once a candidate on the democratic ticket against John Dimon, but is a Prohibitionist, although his father and relatives are all republicans.

It is believed that W. S. Jameson, truant officer, will be candidate on the democratic ticket, although Mr. Jameson told Mr. Marvin that he would not run if Mr. Marvin wanted it.

Another candidate who has been suggested for the democratic ticket is George McConnell, 1421 Avon street. It is understood that several other candidates are also seeking the office.

CAR SHORTAGE CAUSES STRESS

Railroad officials in the west and northwest are already becoming nervous as a result of the present freight car shortage, which threatens to attain nearly the proportions attained in the early part of last winter and may tie up traffic in the entire northwest before the winter is over.

La Crosse railroad men will not admit they are experiencing a shortage at the present time, but it is known that efforts are being made to keep all cars moving as rapidly as possible, and empties are returned to the starting point as soon as they can be moved.

The three roads which will be most effected by a shortage this winter are the Burlington, Northern Pacific and Great Northern, all of which belong to the Hill system and handle the bulk of the northwest business. All of these roads have had thousands of new cars built during the past year, and all have had orders for new locomotives filled, but it is still feared the delivery of rolling stock have not been sufficient to keep up with the demand.

Hundreds of the old style, smaller freight cars have been destroyed during the past year, to comply with the new law requiring air brake equipment. The cars destroyed have been the ones of smaller dimensions, which it was not considered profitable to equip with the air brakes.

The situation has already become so serious in some parts of the west that the United States government has taken the matter up and is conducting an investigation in order to protect the residents of the northwest, who last year suffered from a lack of coal.

OLD EMPLOYEE QUITS MILWAUKEE

Ed Koch, who has been employed as lamp tender and night gatekeeper at the Mill street crossing for the last twenty-four years, has resigned his position. Mr. Koch has been in the employ of the road for a longer time perhaps than any other man and stayed at the same position. At a recent change in the affairs, by the placing of a man at the gate Mr. Koch was forced to work longer than usual and as well as tending the lights in the yards he also was forced to take care of the gates a portion of the time. The other man received the same pay, and when Mr. Koch demanded a more equal division of the labor or a raise in salary he was refused by the road officials. He immediately turned in his keys. Since Mr. Koch's resignation a man has been placed at the crossing to tend the gates all night and another has been placed in charge of the lamps.

LIFTS DISPATCH BOAT FROM ROCKS

A launch party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. James Abell, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schultze went to Trempealeau Sunday in the "Press Dispatch" boat. The party left the levee at noon, but owing to the snapping of a pump belt on the engine was delayed in reaching Trempealeau, and was forced to remain there over night. On the return trip yesterday morning at Dakota the launch struck a parcel of rocks and the propeller became lodged in a pocket making backing of the engines impossible. At this point Mr. Abell was forced to get into the water and lift the boat off. The party reached La Crosse without further mishap about 10 a. m. An expert engineer accompanied them.

SWITCHMEN TO CONFER IN CHICAGO

Negotiations between the general managers and the switchmen of the roads operating out of St. Paul relative to the demands for higher wages will be conducted in Chicago. Although the date is not set it is understood that it will not be later than next Thursday. The last conference was held at St. Paul last Friday, but no headway was made and it was agreed to shift the scene to Chicago. The switchmen will be represented by a subcommittee of six, which will join with other subcommittees from other parts of the country.

SETTLES ESTATE AT FOUNTAIN CITY

George Huefner of Aberdeen, S. D., who has been in Fountain City for some time settling the estate of his grandfather, who died recently, is spending a few days in La Crosse as the guest of Mrs. Feuerhak of 1530 Rose street. Mr. Huefner, who died at Fountain City, was well known in La Crosse, having been one of the early residents of the North side. He had lived in the western part of the state for the last fifty years, going to Fountain City recently.

HENRY DAVIS GOES TO PRAIRIE DU CHIEN

Henry Davis has resigned his position at the Partridge drug store and will leave soon for Prairie du Chien, where he will go into partnership in the drug business, with W. A. Garbey. Mr. Davis will be succeeded by Mr. Frank Faller, who was formerly employed at the Brakke drug store on Caledonia street.

RUN TRAIN ON TO CHICAGO

A change in the passenger service of the "Q" will go into effect Sunday. Train No. 54 that leaves Minneapolis and arrives at Grand Crossing at 11:15 instead of stopping here will be made a through train to Chicago. At present the Burlington has only one daylight train, No. 52, to Chicago and that arrives at La Crosse at 11:25. The new time card has not been received here as yet, but in all probability some change will be made in the time of the 11:25.

The new train has been put on to satisfy the demands of the public.

MACHINISTS NOW WORK NINE HOURS

Saturday morning all the machinists of the Grand Crossing Burlington shops were placed on the nine hour schedule. They have been working on the ten hour day's schedule with Saturday afternoon off. It is said that the men all approve of the "nine hour schedule and work every day" plan.

NORTH SIDE BRIEFS

Bruce Alleman has returned from an extended western business visit. He has for some time been operator at bridge switch.

Mr. Bert Carleton and daughter Susie have gone to Chicago and Milwaukee, where they will spend some time as the guests of friends and relatives.

Charles Welch, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Welch is ill at his home, 1648 Charles street.

Alfred M. Beck, son of C. C. Beck of 1536 Charles street, will leave Thursday for Trinidad, Cal., where he will make his home. Mr. Beck was formerly in the U. S. navy and was on the new battleship the "Maine." Mr. Beck is well known on the North side and has a number of friends here.

Improvements are being made to the building occupied by the "Grand Crossing" saloon.

The bowling season has been opened on the North side and every night the clubs meet at the different places to participate in the sport. A number of bowlers rolled at the Kissebach alleys on George street yesterday and a few high scores were made.

Almer Yehle, who has been enjoying a two weeks vacation has resumed his duties at the North side branch of the Langdon-Boyd company.

A number of North side "sportsmen" have been retuning every Sunday with a number of ducks. It has been quietly "tipped off," however, that they were "shot" at Fisher's and other places well known along the West Salem road.

Joseph Egan of Buffalo, New York, is on the North side renewing old acquaintances. Mr. Egan is well known here having lived here for a number of years. He recently left here with his family for Buffalo.

"Dite" Thomason of Sparta was in La Crosse Sunday.

Oscar Sequist, who has been ill for some time is able to be about.

John Furckhak, who has been in charge of the transfer at Grand Crossing, has been sent to Winona and will have charge of the transfer there.

The only chance the rooters will have to see the team in action before the big game will be on Saturday, when they meet the scrubs.

BARELY ESCAPES UNDER CAR

Thomas Shimmin, 415 North Seventh street, narrowly escaped death beneath the car wheels of a car of the La Crosse City Railway company shortly after noon on Saturday at Sixth and Main streets, when his horse slipped on the wet pavement, and was struck by the car.

Mr. Shimmin failed to see the approaching car while approaching the track. When he had almost reached the crossing he noticed the car, and tried to stop his horse. The feet of the animal slipped, and the horse fell on the tracks.

The car struck the animal, and pushed the beast along.

Mr. Shimmin escaped injury.

The Careful Physician

A doctor recently said:—

"I know that if I could keep Coffee from most of my patients the remedies would be more effective."

That's because Coffee contains a drug — Caffeine — which interferes with the success of other drugs the doctor may be giving the patient. Many persons do not realize they are taking a drug into their systems when they drink Coffee or Tea, but such is the fact.

Some of the effects of the Coffee drug are: Nervousness, Palpitation of the Heart, Shortness of Breath, Insomnia, Sour Stomach, Loss of Natural Appetite, Cold Hands and Feet, Indigestion, Bowel Troubles, etc., etc.

Common sense would suggest the disuse of Coffee when such symptoms show themselves, before the disease becomes permanent. It is well to heed the doctor's advice when he says:—

"Cut Out
Coffee if it disagrees"

It's an easy and pleasant task when the further suggestion is observed:—

PRISONER NEEDED NO HURRY WAGON

John Omen is an old offender. John knows the way to the county jail from the county building.

When John received sentence of forty-five days in jail after a plea of guilty to a vagrancy charge, he was sent on his way to imprisonment without a guard.

John, known as "Fiddler John" was directed to the jail by Under-sheriff John Mohr in the following terms: "See here John," the undersheriff spoke up, "you know the way to the jail, and you be there in time for supper and hustle right along. Start, now, hike."

Away went John, and when supper time rolled around, the prisoner was there. He had been given a bath and was fully prepared to spend the next forty-five days in comfort, being given "three squares" a day and a warm place to sleep.

INSULTING AGENT HAS EYES BLACKED

PRESTON, Minn., Nov. 5. (Special.)—An agent taking orders for enlarged pictures registering at the Park hotel as C. M. Baldwin, Cincinnati, skipped out of town in a hurry yesterday. He was canvassing the town and at two homes where he found the lady of the house at home alone, he insulted them. At noon when the husbands came home from their work they were told of the actions of the agent, and they made haste to find him. They located him and immediately proceeded to enrage his picture. He left town with a large face in colors. A warrant was sworn out for his arrest but as one of the ladies objected going to court and testifying to the vile language used by the agent the matter was dropped and he got out of town double quick. He cut across blocks from corner to corner to make time.

NIGHT WATCHMAN
LEAVES SUDDENLY

J. W. Jekka who has for some time been the night watchman at the Sumfit foundry yesterday morning left without any notice whatever on the 3:30 train for Washington where he will be employed.

In the morning when the engineer arrived at his post he found that there was no night watchman at the plant and that he had vanished during the night. It is thought that he will secure work at Ballard, Wash.

The report circulated to the effect that the plant had closed for the season is erroneous as they are having a good season and will work all winter.

Tropical Fruit That Preserves Youth

Wonderful Cure for Chronic Constipation, Lost Power, Kidney Disease, Rheumatism, etc., Found in Tropical Fruits.

A truly wonderful discovery has been made in medical science which every chronically constipated, weak, nerve-broken, run-down man or woman, and victim of kidney disease or rheumatism should know about, particularly as the cure is so easy to obtain and its effect so quick, so nerve-stimulating and so satisfying.

Hardly any man or woman need now complain of the terrible effects of chronic constipation and loss of nerve-force, with this cure at hand. It has been the lack of such a remedy which has caused heretofore such unhappiness and real misery among men and women who have found themselves suddenly deserted of their former youthful vigor and health. Nine times in ten it is not old age, but simply weakness of the nerves and lack of sufficient nerve tissue, which causes loss of power and vigor.

Once the nerves are made strong, the natural vigor should continue even into advanced old age.

Here is a simple, home remedy which we recommended most highly to all our readers for building up lost nerve-force. Its results have proven as marvelous as its ingredients are simple. Anyone can mix this remedy at home:

Mix one ounce of Obifrut Compound Extract with seven ounces of port wine or unfermented grape juice. Of this mixture, take a dessertspoonful three or four times a day after each meal and at bedtime.

These ingredients can be obtained at almost any drugstore.

It will cure you of nerve weakness in almost any stage, chronic constipation, brain-fag, loss of courage, nervous prostration, kidney disease, weak back, and insomnia, and is an almost sure preventive of disease when constantly and persistently taken.

Nearly every drugstore will supply you with Obifrut Compound Extract, and port wine or unfermented grape juice.

Word has been received in the city of the marriage of Emil Kumm, who enlisted in the artillery service from this city and is now attached to the corps at West Point military academy, and Miss Hannah Tillio of Fitchburg, Mass., after a romantic courtship. Mr. Kumm met his wife on the famous Lovers' lane at West Point and claimed his bride at her home in Fitchburg. They will make their home at West Point.

Prescription Talk No. 11

As I am personally well acquainted with all our Druggists here, I can vouch for their conscientiousness and capacity in compounding prescriptions, and that they are all first class in this work. Now as to myself I will only say that I also enjoyed quite a prescription business while here, having filled over 105,000 prescriptions without one error on record. I always considered it the most important branch of my business, paying special attention to it as to safety firstly, and secondly making charges as moderate as possible. I am daily adding to the number, and have the ingredients to fill any prescription you may present at my counter.

A Square Deal

Is assured you when you buy Dr. Pierce's family medicines—these are printed on the bottle-wrappers and their formulas are attested under oath as being complete and correct. You know just what you are paying for and that the ingredients are gathered from Nature's laboratory, being selected from the most valuable native medicinal roots found growing in our American forests and while potent to cure are perfectly harmless even to the most delicate woman and child. Not a drop of alcohol enters into their composition. A much better tonic than any other for exacting and preserving the exhausted principles used in them, viz., pure refined glycerine. This agent possesses intrinsic medicinal properties of its own, being a most valuable antiseptic and astringent, nutritive and soothing demulcent.

Glycerine plays an important part in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in the cure of indigestion, dyspepsia, weak stomach, attended by sour risings, heart-burn, foul breath, coated tongue, poor appetite, gnawing feeling in stomach, biliousness and kindred derangements of the stomach, liver and bowels. Besides curing all the above distressing ailments, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a specific for all diseases of the mucous membranes, as catarrh, whether of the nasal passages or of the stomach, bowels or pelvic organs. Even in its ulcerative stages it will yield to this sovereign remedy if its use be persevered in. In Chronic Catarrh of the Nasal passages, it is well, while taking the "Golden Medical Discovery" for the necessary constitutional treatment, to cleanse the passages freely two or three times a day with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. This thorough course of treatment generally cures the worst cases.

In coughs and hoarseness caused by bronchial, throat and lung affections, except consumption in its advanced stages, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most efficient remedy, especially in those obstinate, long-continued coughs caused by irritation and congestion of the bronchial mucous membranes. The "Discovery" is not so good for acute coughs arising from sudden colds, nor must it be expected to cure consumption in its advanced stages—no medicine will do that—but for all the obstinate, chronic coughs, which, if neglected, or badly treated, lead up to consumption, it is the best medicine that can be taken.

PLENTY OF MONEY FOR LA FOLLETTE

PRESIDENTIAL PROGRAM TO BE WELL FINANCED

GENERAL COMMITTEE CAN VASS

Much of Work Necessary to Raising of Funds Is Done and the Bar'l Is Filling

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 5.—The La Follette "money-barrel" will be well filled when the time comes for the fight for the Wisconsin delegation to begin in the open. Assurances to this effect have been received here by Speaker H. L. Ekern, secretary-in-charge of the La Follette-for-president executive committee. Originally it was planned to raise a fund of $100,000, but many optimistically predicted that it will go still higher. The money is being raised through the efforts of the general committee which was selected at the conference here last week. Most of the committee members, however, have known for months that they probably would be chosen, so that their canvassing plans are being well carried out.

The effect of today's elections upon the fortunes of Taft is being watched with special interest by the supporters of the Wisconsin senator and also by those Taft boomers who have leanings toward the third term idea.

receive a larger salary from the time which she entered the high school teaching staff.

Holidays Arranged.
 Dr. Evans moved that the Friday following Thanksgiving day be a school holiday, which was passed.

The matter of the Christmas holiday was then taken up as it was deemed advisable to do so in view of the fact that the teachers who leave for their homes outside of the city would be able to plan as to the time allowed. It was finally decided that the Christmas holiday comprise two weeks from the 21st of December to the 6th of January. Last year this vacation was but ten days.

Athletes Want Light

A petition was read to the board from the students of the 16th and Vine street school to the effect that the members of the basketball team wish to resume that game in the gymnasium, where they played for some time last season. They want more light as it is impossible to play there with but six lights, and ask that the board increase the number to fourteen. The petition was referred for investigation to the committee on buildings and grounds.

Inspect Tenth Ward

The Tenth ward school was inspected for acceptance by the board today, by Architect Wells E. Bennett, members of the board of education and others interested.

The board decided that a vote of thanks was due to the Summit stove works for the beautiful range which they had donated to the new high school.

Grant Leave to Teachers

Teachers who wish to attend the Wisconsin Teachers' association convention will be allowed to do so. It is said that about two will go from the high school and six from other schools in the city. This will leave some of the schools in the city without a teacher upon the 7th, 8th and 9th of this week. It is not expected that many will attend, however. Superintendent Bird also announced that the teachers of the La Crosse schools had received an invitation to attend the annual convention of the Chicago University, which will be held about the same time.

In regard to the Wisconsin Teachers' association convention Superintendent John P. Bird is in receipt of a communication calling attention to the dates.

Exhibit of Manual Training

One of the features of the convention will be the "live exhibit" in manual training. Various classes of Milwaukee children will be shown at work in occupations in handwork, clay modeling, sewing, weaving, bookbinding, basket-making, cooking and shop work, from the kindergarten to the eighth grade. Work of high school pupils in manual training will be on exhibition.

On Nov. 7, the Fifteenth district school No. 2, Twenty-seventh street and Cold Spring avenue, will be opened for exhibitions in manual training. On Nov. 8 the Eighth district school No. 2, Fifth avenue and Madison street, will be open from 2 until 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

Milwaukee students in manual training were awarded about $150 in prizes at the Wisconsin state fair. Many of the prize pieces will be shown. The exhibits will be under the supervision of Miss Ida Hood Clark, director of manual training.

generally are satisfactory. The most trying problem Secretary Root has had on his hands is the Japanese question, which has given him much concern and to which he has devoted much time and thought. The Japanese question is far from settled but there is not much doubt that if ever the inside of what has so far taken place is revealed, it will develop Mr. Root has done the country great service in preventing a breach in American relations in the far east.

Root and Roosevelt

Much has been said about the president and Secretary Root not agreeing on railroad and corporation questions and on policies having a bearing on the financial conditions of the country. Such differences have existed but the fact is Mr. Root is one of the few men in the cabinet who has the courage to speak out when he believes the president in the wrong. The president has a wholesome respect for Root's advice, though he does not follow it on all matters. It is natural enough that two such men as Roosevelt and Root should disagree, but still such disagreements as they have had would not lead Mr. Root to leave the cabinet if his health were of the best.

Some Presidential Talk

Lately, renewed mention has been made of Secretary Root for president. Senator Scott came out for him the other day. But there is reason to believe that Mr. Root cherishes no illusions about being president and is aware of the intense opposition that would arise in the west were he to be a candidate.

Spooner Looms Up

The president would be at a loss who to select for Mr. Root's place if he should retire. Assistant Secretary of State Robert W. Bacon is mentioned, but this is looked on as doubtful here, and Mr. Spooner, who served long on the foreign relations committee of the senate, is mentioned as the most likely man for the office.

MR. BILLIK GETS ANOTHER RESPITE

in his brother's arms."

"I don't want to talk about the death. I must decline to offer any theories until after the inquest is over."

Police Begin Investigation

Niemann had had no doctor for three days. After his death Dr. M. A. Weiskopf was summoned and asked to make out a death certificate. Dr. Weiskopf had treated Niemann for rheumatism. He was suspicious about the cause of death and notified the coroner.

Coroner Hoffman notified the police of the Hinman street station, who immediately investigated the death. Lieut. Charles Johnson and Sergeant Malone conducted the investigation.

Niemann's brother, Fred, a farmer living at Downer's Grove, was present when Niemann died.

"I came to Chicago three days ago at the request of my brother," Fred Niemann told Lieut. Johnson. "He said he was not feeling well and wanted to get away from the city for a long time. He talked of buying forty acres of land near my place and moving permanently to the country."

"This afternoon after dinner we were seated in the living room. William had just taken up his long pipe to smoke and was seated in a rocking chair. Without any words he began gasping for breath, and before we could get a doctor he was dead."

"I don't see any evidence of poison. He drank heavily of late, and that may have affected his heart."

Post-Mortem Examination Begun.
 Coroner Hoffman, Dr. H. G. Reinhardt, coroner's physician, and Dr. Harold N. Moyer, the alienist, went to the Niemann residence in the evening and made a post-mortem examination of the body.

"We were not able to arrive at any conclusion as to the cause of death," said Coroner Hoffman. "We removed the stomach, intestines, liver and kidneys, and placed them in jars. Dr. Moyer will make a microscopic analysis, and, if necessary, a chemical analysis will be made later."

"Mrs. Niemann wasn't able to throw any light on the cause of death. His brother seemed to think it was caused by heart failure. The heart was fatty."

The inquest was opened at 10 a. m. today.

EDITOR PLAYS JOKE ON CHANCELLOR DAY

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Nov. 5.—Chancellor Day, noted for his criticisms of Roosevelt and his defense of the Standard Oil Co., was nominated for the presidency today in an editorial by Stanley Copeland, editor, in the Daily Orange, the publication of Syracuse university. He declares Day is great democratic timber.

The affirming of the verdict, carries $2,000 damages for Neumeister, now an inmate of the Wisconsin insane asylum at Mendota, Wis.

Neumeister brought suit against Goddard for $5,000 damages in September, 1904, and a judgment for $3,000 was returned. The supreme court later reversed the ruling and remanded the case back for a new trial, in January, 1905. The action was heard before Judge Fruit again. This time the damages were decreased $1,000, the jury allowing Neumeister $2,000. This decision was rendered in May, 1906.

Attorneys Morris & Hartwell, La Crosse, who argued the case here, appealed again. Attorneys C. L. Hood, La Crosse, and W. E. Wolfe, La Crosse, appeared before the supreme court for Neumeister.

New Trial Ordered

A new trial was ordered in the suit of the State Bank of La Crosse versus Barbara Beinfang. The action was started to set aside title to a farm in Vernon county on July 7, 1905, a judgment was rendered in La Crosse county against Schallert for $2,259. Later the execution was returned unsatisfied.

About this time it was discovered that Schallert had purchased a farm for $7,000 from Charles Bunting, but that the title of the property had been placed in the name of Barbara Beinfang. An action to set aside the deed was started, and resulted in a judgment in favor of the plaintiff. The defendant appealed the case to the supreme court.

Attorney C. L. Hood, La Crosse, represented the plaintiffs and Geo. W. Bunge, La Crosse, and C. W. Graves, Viroqua, the defendants.

The judgment was reversed and the cause remanded for further proceedings according to law.

The supreme court held that the circuit judge erred in refusing to allow certain evidence to be introduced in the suit of Anna Meyer vs. William Dougherty to recover $3,700 from the estate of Mary Dougherty, the mother of the two litigants. Judgment was reversed.

Mrs. Mary Dougherty died in 1905, and during her illness Dougherty, her son, had drawn $3,700 from the State bank of La Crosse in checks, which were signed with a cross, the mark of his mother. On the death of Mrs. Dougherty the action was started to recover the money from the estate, the plaintiffs alleging that Dougherty merely had borrowed the cash. Judge Fruit decided in favor of the defendant on the ground that the checks conveyed title in the estate to Dougherty.

Attorney C. L. Hood, La Crosse, conducted the case for the plaintiffs, while George W. Bunge, La Crosse, defended.

The decision of Judge Fruit in the suit of H. E. Russell versus George A. Wright, Grand Meadow, Minn., trustee of the Russell estate, was affirmed.

ROOSEVELT BARS CAT ASHES

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Public Administrator William M. Hoos has disposed of the entire legacy left by the late Mrs. Lulu B. Glover, excepting the ashes of a cremated kitten. He has failed to get rid of this interesting relic. President Roosevelt, whom Mrs. Glover, who committed suicide in her apartments at 2089 Lexington avenue on Dec. 10, left her estate, has firmly refused to add the funeral urn which contains the ashes of the feline pet to his stock of curiosities.

VICTIMS OF ITALIAN FEUD?

PASSAIC, N. J., Nov. 5.—Raffaele Ruffano and his wife Antoinette were murdered in Garfield, N. J., Saturday night. The woman's body was found in front of the grocery store which the couple owned. In the kitchen lay Ruffano's body. Both had been shot in the head. There is no clue to the murderer. To acquaintances Ruffano and his wife said that they had been compelled to leave Italy suddenly two years ago. Mrs. Ruff-ano seemed always in fear of some thing and carried a revolver.

GIRL OF TWELVE FOILS ROBBERS

BRAVES DANGER OF BULLETS
TO SUMMON HELP.

POSSE PURSUES THIEVES

Young Miss Rang Bell, Calling People Out—Running Battle Follows—Desperadoes Escape

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 5.—
Braving the danger of being shot by bank robbers who had been driven from their work by her father and brother, Ruth Trump, the 12 year old daughter of John Trump, of Robbinsdale, a suburb of Minneapolis, early Sunday morning ran to the town hall and ran an alarm which summoned the citizens from their beds to join in the pursuit of the burglars.

Ignoring natural fears, the child groped about the dark, empty rooms until she found the bell rope, and then, putting all her strength into the effort she sent out such an alarm as the village has not heard in years.
Citizens, roused from the sleep of early morning, leaped from their beds and rushed, scantily clad, into the streets, where the sound of firearms gave them an inkling as to the cause of the bell's clangor. Men hurried back to their homes, and seizing such weapons as first came to their hands, ran into the streets and joined the girl's father and brother in the chase.

Burglars Get Away.

Many shots were fired, but as far as is known none took effect and the marauders disappeared in the direction of Camden place, Minneapolis.
The police of the Twin Cities were notified, but up to now nothing had been learned which went to establish the identity of the burglars, and no arrests had been made. The attempt on the bank safe was a failure, though two charges of nitro-glycerin were fired.

Shortly after 3 o'clock Sunday morning John Trump, who lives opposite the State bank of Robbinsdale, was aroused by a heavy explosion. The sound seemed to come from across the street, and looking from the front windows of his home he could see two men in the bank building working at the safe. Mr.
Trump went to call his son, and when they returned to the window the burglars were ready to set off a second charge of nitroglycerin.

Child Gives the Alarm

Meanwhile the firing had awakened Ruth, Mr. Trump's young daughter, and without waiting for directions from any one she ran from the house and in the direction of the town hall, while the two men of the family started in pursuit of the burglars. The child's vigorous ringing of the bell in the hall quickly aroused the men of the village, and by the time they reached the streets Mr.
Trump and his son had caught sight of the fugitives and again opened fire. Other citizens quickly joined in the chase, a fusillade of bullets being sent after the fleeing men, but without effect. When the chase finally was abandoned, the party returned to the hall, where they found the girl still tugging at the rope, while the heavy bell was sending its warning throughout the village. They took her with them to the bank, where examination showed that the safe had not been opened, even by the second explosion. The door of the money vault was badly shattered, but was not torn entirely free. Entrance to the building had been gained from the rear, and the door had been opened from the inside so that the burglars had an easy means of exit when they were frightened from their work.

DESPOUDENT MAN HANGS HIMSELF

AKELEY, Minn., Nov. 5.—Despondent over business reverses, Louis
Grogg, proprietor of the Akeley Grocery company, hanged himself with a rope suspended from the ceiling of the warehouse at his place of business.

A few days ago L. E. Hunter of this village was placed in charge of the Akeley Grocery company's business to protect the interests of a Twin City wholesale concern. This action greatly depressed Grogg.

WEDDED FIFTY YEARS.

WINONA, Minn., Nov. 5.—Mr.
and Mrs. Charles Sehler of this city have celebrated their golden wedding. They have lived in this city for about forty-four years, having moved here from New Ulm, where they were married in 1857. They went through the Indian outbreak there in 1862, where Mr. Sehler had charge of the government warehouse. His life was saved by an Indian chief, who guided him home through the country that was picketed with hostile Indians. In the attack which followed, the girl who was holding his infant daughter was shot through the head, but the child was not injured. They have two children, Fred of this city, and Mrs.
Bertha Reul of Baraboo, Wis.

CAMPAIGN AGAINST UTES THIS WINTER

REGULAR ARMY IS PREPARING HARSH MEASURES

OLD FIGHTER IN COMMAND

Col. West, Who Has Had Experience
With Bad Indians, Will be at Head of the Troops.

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 5.—Plans have been perfected within the last twenty-four hours at the headquarters of the department of the Missouri for a winter campaign against the renegade Utes in South Dakota.
Acting on orders from Washington received late Saturday evening after a white house conference two additional squadrons of the Second cavalry were sent from Fort Des Moines to the Cheyenne river reservation in South Dakota, and this morning Company K of the Sixteenth infantry left Fort Crook to garrison Fort Moines during the absence of the Second cavalry at the scene of the trouble.

Company M of the Sixteenth infantry, under command of Capt. Harry F. Dalton, will leave Fort Crook early Monday morning for Gettysburg, S. D., to take charge of the base of supplies which has been established at that point.

Col. Frank West of the Second cavalry, who is an old Indian fighter, will command the expedition on its arrival at Thunder Buttes. In the event of operations being continued into winter, which is considered probable, doubtless the base of operations will be transferred from Gettysburg, which is the end of the railway, to the Cheyenne river agency, eighteen miles farther west, so as to avoid the inconvenience of crossing the river.

The command will go into the field
fully equipped for a winter campaign.

clothing besmeared with eggs of various ages, Editor Charles G. Gil-cause Editor Gilson was a knocker.

son has sued Dr. C. E. Ruth of Keokuk for $20,000 damages for alleged second operation was performed by Dr. Clark of Fairfield and Dr. Morrow of this place, and a piece of gauze was found.

BURLINGTON, Ia.—It is rumored that Manager Ed Egan, the boss of the local baseball situation, is in Europe, having accompanied his

FORT MADISON, Ia.—The Mor-

OLD GUARD SORRY ABOUT COMPANY M

La Crosse, Wis.
It was with sincere regret that I read the article in your issue of the 28th ult. stating that there is danger of La Crosse losing its Company M, and it being mustered out of service, and I dare say there are many former members of the company, both resident and non-resident of the city who would feel a personal loss if it were to be disbanded. Many of the old members can look back to the time of struggle when the Gateway

WISCONSIN NEWS

NEW LAW KEEPS HUNTERS AWAY

OUTSIDERS WANT TO BE ALLOWED TWO DEER

FALLING OFF IN LICENSES

Only 117 Issued Thus far at Madison
—Three Times that Number
Last Season

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 5.—The amendment to the hunting law reducing the number of deer that a nonresident hunter can take out of the state from two to one has resulted in a big falling off in the number of nonresident licenses issued this year. The total number of such licenses issued so far this season is 117 as against about three times that number last year. As the fee for these licenses is $25 apiece, the revenue of the state hunting fund from this source has been $2,925 this season as against three times that much last year. It is understood that many of the Illinois and Indiana hunters who formerly came to Wisconsin for deer will go to Michigan this year, where they can carry away two apiece. Minnesota's law is similar to Wisconsin's. The total number of small game licenses issued to nonresidents this year is 345, a slight falling off from that of previous years.

The open season for deer in Wisconsin will begin next Monday and continue the remaining twenty days of the month.

State Warden Stone says that there has been a large increase in the number of licenses issued to resident hunters.

PLAN TO DEVELOP COUNTY RESOURCES

HAYWARD, Wis., Nov. 5.—The preliminary work of organizing county development associations in the various northern counties is almost completed. Social organizations have been perfected in twelve or more counties and delegates chosen to represent them in the convention, which will be held in this city Nov. 7. Several other counties have taken the first steps toward organizing, so that it appears that there will be about sixteen counties represented.

This convention will perfect the organization of a federation along the lines recommended by the North Wisconsin Farmers' association.

HUNTER IS KILLED; WAS ABOUT TO WED

SHOT BY COMPANIONS WHILE DUCK HUNTING

BLIND HIDE IS DANGEROUS

Not Known Who Fired Fatal Charge
—Prominent in Milwaukee Business and Sporting Affairs

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 5.—Only a short time before he was to have been married, William J. Carney, private secretary to B. C. Wait, assistant superintendent of the International Harvester company, was accidentally killed yesterday near Green Bay, where he had gone on a duck hunting expedition. His fiancée, Miss Marie Riedel, daughter of Frank F. Riedel, manager of the German-American bank, Bay View branch, is prostrated by the news, and her condition is regarded as serious.

Mr. Carney was accompanied by E. J. Bryden, cashier of the International Harvester company, and M. F. Quinn, superintendent of the Standard Cream Separator company. The three men were concealed in a "hide," waiting for ducks. A flock flew overhead, and all three fired. Mr. Carney dropped dead, one half of his face being blown away. Who of the party fired the fatal charge is unknown. The Green Bay authorities were notified, and an inquest was held yesterday afternoon. The body is expected to arrive in the city today. The funeral will probably be held Thursday morning, with services at St. Matthews' church at 9 o'clock. Interment will be at Calvary.

Mr. Carney was well known in Milwaukee, particularly in baseball circles. He was one of the organizers of the Lake Shore league, and also of the Milwaukee Harvester team.

With the addition of the students in the agricultural and dairy courses and those in the summer session, the total enrollment for the year will be between 4,000 and 4,100.

In the college of letters and science there are 1,683 students, an increase of 180, or 11 per cent. In the college of engineering 876 students are enrolled, a gain of 97, or 11 per cent. The college of agriculture has 149 students in the four-year course, an increase of six.

FIGHT OR FUN, IT MAKES NO MATTER

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—"This fleet of sixteen battleships and other vessels will sail from Hampton Roads on Dec. 116. I don't think anybody wants to stop it, for I know the men and I know the ships. You won't be disappointed in the fleet, whether it proves to be a feast, a frolic, or a fight."

That is what Admiral Robley D. Evans, who is about to depart in command of the United States battleship squadron for the Pacific, said at a dinner given by the Lotus club in his honor Saturday night.

Evans' Opinion of Frisco Gang—Admiral Evans didn't care whether the press knew what he thought plants in operation. The water in Lake Winnebago is only one-half inch above the crest of the government dam in that city, and if the mills are not allowed to draw the water below the crest of the dam, it will be seen how close they are operating to the line.

MARINETTE—In the order just filed cutting down the verdict in the case of Louis Beach vs. Bird & Wells, Judge Halsey gives his reasons for lowering the amount fixed by the jury from $20,000 to $5,000. He states that in arguing to the jury counsel for both sides had made the statement that the jury could fix to a certain amount and that the court would have the power to lower it, but if it is fixed too low the court could not raise it.

MARINETTE—Chief Cook of the police department has started a crusade against the small boy who uses firearms. He has decided to confiscate all arms used by boys if they are caught using them inside the city limits. The chief has had repeated complaints that the reckless use of firearms is endangering life and property. In a number of cases stray bullets have been fired into houses and several people have narrowly missed being killed.

MELLEN—It is now believed that the strata of iron ore which runs throughout the Gogebic range extends within several miles of this village, and it is proposed to explore the properties. It is believed a number of mines will be opened up in the near future.

OMRO—An Italian marble bust of the late H. W. Webster, founder of the Webster Manual Training school, has been placed in that institution by Mrs. L. M. Webster of Oshkosh. Public exercises for the dedication of the building will be held in the near future.

RACINE—The body of W. S. Whitling, former president of the old Brown Corliss Engine company, who died from injuries sustained by a freight train cutting off his legs, was Monday forwarded to Cambridge, Mass., accompanied by his wife and a brother. An inquest was held and a verdict brought in that he came to his death from injuries received by being thrown from his buggy under the wheels of a freight train. Mr. Whitling left an estate worth perhaps $25,000, which is bequeathed to his wife.

RACINE—The November calendar for the term of circuit court shows a large number of damage cases. The aggregate amount of damages asked by employees from employers for alleged injuries is close to $60,000. The largest suit is that of Lars C. Anderson against the Horlick Food company for $25,000. There are only two criminal cases, the state against William Dilke, for the murder of Jacob Best of Milwaukee, and George Snidevin, charged with selling liquor in Watford without a license.

RACINE—The Log Cabin saloon was looted by burglars Sunday night. Several thousand cigars were stolen, many gallons of whiskey and $7 in money. This is the place against which Chief of Police Baker made charges, asking that the license be revoked. The case will be heard by the council this evening.

RACINE—Max Flisgelman of Chicago spent twenty-four hours in this city looking after his 17 year old daughter, who recently eloped from Chicago with Morris Jomalaski, aged 21 years. The police assisted in the search, but nothing could be found of the couple.

A Significant Prayer.
"May the Lord help you make Bucklen's Arnica Salve known to all," writes J. G. Jenkins, of Chapel Hill, N. C. It quickly took the pain out of a felon for me and cured it in a wonderfully short time." Best on earth for sores, burns and wounds. 25c, at O. T. Erhart's drug store.

about it or not. He knew that his gunners could hit under all circumstances and believed he could get coal somehow.
"It would please me very much to take the fleet to Yokohama," he said. "I know the Japanese, and I know that we would get a welcome there. I know it would not be the welcome we would get from a certain gang in San Francisco."
"He said the recent target practice had proved African gunners have no equals."

A BILL TO SELL HIS WATCHES, THEY SAY

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Representatives of the railway employees of Chicago were sent to Springfield today to oppose the passage of a bill introduced in the legislature to change the system of time inspection on the Illinois Central and other roads in Illinois. Webb C. Ball, of Cleveland, O., is chief time inspector for many roads. The opponents of his system charge that he has used his position to force trainmen to buy his watches. The trainmen deny this, declaring the bill is backed by the retail jewelers and small towns.

ARREST MAYOR IN ST. LOUIS AS ELOPER

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 5.—Benjamin W. Pope, Mayor of Duquoin, Ill., and Mrs. Ida Lee Manion, wife of a well-known business man at Mount Vernon, Ill., were arrested at 1:15 o'clock, yesterday morning in the Burlington Hotel.

They were taken to the central district police station, where, in the presence of the husband, Mrs. Manion broke down and covered her face with her hands. She is 24 years old. Pope is 54 years old.

FLORAL NATURE FAKERS NOW.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—New types of "nature fakers" have been found by Mrs. Porter Lander MacClintock of the University of Chicago faculty. They are school teachers, who err grossly, she believes, in their talks to children, by giving personality and human emotions to plants and flowers. The object, of course, is to make the lesson more attractive, and impress it more vividly on the childish mind. The difficulty, as Mrs. MacClintock sees it, is that the impression conveyed is altogether misleading.

Cured of Bright's Disease

Mr. Robert O. Burke, Elmora, N. Y., writes: "Before I started to use Foley's Kidney Cure I had to get up from twelve to twenty times a night, and I was all bloated up with dropsy, and my eyesight was so impaired I could scarcely see one of my family across the room. I had given up hope of living, when a friend recommended Foley's Kidney Cure. One 50 cent bottle worked wonders and before I had taken the third bottle the dropsy had gone, as well as all other symptoms of Bright's disease." O. T. Erhart.
